The Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

IT having been repreſented to Her Majeſty in Council, That the Lucretia Bark, Joſeph Ambler, Maſter, Burthen about Twenty five Tons, laden with Two hundred and ſeventy two Barrels of Powder, bound from Plymouth to Her Majeſty's Magazine below Greenwich, being on Saturday the 29th of Auguſt laſt at an Anchor in the Downs, about Six a-Clock in the Evening, there came on Board the ſaid Bark Seven Men in a Deal-Yawl, and after having Impriſoned the Maſter and his Crew, Plunder'd her of about One hundred and fifty Barrels of the ſaid Powder, and put the ſame on Board a Collier they had Seiz'd, and Sail'd away therewith, putting the Maſter and Men thereof on Board the ſaid Bark. Her Majeſty for the Diſcovery of the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Robbery, is graciouſly pleaſed to promiſe, that a Reward of Two hundred Pounds ſhall be paid to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall firſt diſcover the ſaid Robbers, or any one or more of them, ſo as he or they ſhall be apprehended and brought to Juſtice for the ſame. And Her Majeſty is further pleaſed to promiſe, That if any One of the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Robbery ſhall make ſuch Diſcovery, he ſhall not only have the ſaid Reward, but ſhall likewiſe have Her Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon for the ſaid Offence. And the Right Hon. the Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain is hereby required to cauſe Payment to be made of the ſaid Reward of Two hundred Pounds to the Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery upon the Conviction of any one or more of the ſaid Robbers.

Edward Southwell.

Her Majeſty in Council was this Day graciouſly pleaſed to declare his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

This Day, by Her Majeſty's Command, the Right Hon. John Earl of Mar was Sworn one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Warſaw, September 4. N. S. King Auguſtus has fixed on the 19th of this Month for his Journey to Sendomir, where he is to review his Saxon Troops, and it is thought at the ſame time he will hold a general Council of War. Monſieur Buzenval, the French Miniſter, arrived here from Dantſig a few Days ago, and has had an Audience of the King, but he has not yet taken any Character upon him, and it is not known how long he intends to ſtay. They write from Stockholm, that the People of that City were in a great Conſternation upon a Report that the Army commanded by General Lubecker in Finland had been defeated by the Muſcovites, and Sixty or Seventy of the Swediſh Officers taken Priſoners. We have received Advice from Adrianople, that the King of Sweden was ſo ill of a Fever, that none of his Miniſters had been permitted to ſee him for ſeveral Days before, and his Life was deſpair'd of when thoſe Letters came away.

Hamburgh, September 15. N. S. The Adminiſtrator of Holſtein intending to go from hence to Brunſwick, has deſired a Paſſport of the Elector of Hanover to go through his Dominions, which has been granted him, with this Reſtriction, that his Retinue is to ſet out eight Days before him, in order to perform a Quarentine. Monſieur Baſſewitz, Envoy of Holſtein at Berlin, has demanded that the Articles of the Treaty concluded with the Duke his Maſter may be performed, upon which he has had ſome warm Diſputes with the Miniſters of that Court, and it is judged from ſome Incidents, which have lately happened, that the King of Pruſſia will uſe no other means than his bare Requeſt in behalf of the Duke of Holſtein. Count Flemming is gone from Berlin to Saxony, where he intends to ſtay but a little while, and then to ſet out for Poland. He is very much diſcontented at the King of Denmark's recalling his Troops that were upon their March towards Pomerania, ſince by that means, it's probable, the Siege of Stralſund muſt be deferred till the next Campaign. King Auguſtus has already ſent away ſome of his Domeſticks to Sendomir, and intends very ſoon to ſet out himſelf towards the ſame Place. The Admiralty of Sweden has fitted out Twenty Gallies, to carry a Reinforcement of Troops to General Lubecker in Finland. Monſieur Live, who was named by the Senate to Command them, has refuſed to go, unleſs he is declared General in Chief.

Hague, Sept. 19. N. S. Monſieur de Chateauneuf, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the Moſt Chriſtian King to the States General, arrived here Yeſterday. The Marquis de Bourg, who has reſided at this Place ſeveral Years as Miniſter of the Duke of Savoy, had this Morning an Audience of Leave of the States General. The Earl of Strafford went from hence a few Days ago to Utrecht, and is expected back very ſoon.

Utrecht, Sept. 20. N. S. Since the arrival of the Earl of Strafford from the Hague, the Miniſters of Spain and Portugal have had frequent Conferences in the Preſence of thoſe of Her Majeſty, in order to adjuſt the remaining Difficulties in the Treaty of Peace between thoſe two Crowns. To Morrow the Miniſters of Great Britain and Spain are to begin their Conferences to ſettle a Treaty of Commerce between the two Nations, which it is believ'd will be concluded in a few Days.
